

The Kasich Budget: A tax shift towards more inequality

In collaboration with

Governor Kasich's plan would cut income taxes and raise the sales tax

The poorest pay the most

Ohioans making less than $21,000 pay an average of

$64 more

The cost of an average residential gas bill in Cleveland

Middle income Ohioans pay more

People making between $36,000 and $56,000 pay an average of

$44 more

Which is about the cost of an oil change

The top 1 percent gets a big cut

People earning more than $457,000 pay an average of $2,400 less

That buys two roundtrip tickets from Columbus to Paris

For more information visit PolicyMattersOhio.org and find us on social media

