

Answers to September 2007 Quiz

1. How much did the richest one percent of Ohio households earn last year?

Answer: The top one percent of households earned more than $986,000, which was 26 times what middle-income families earned. Learn more here.

2. To what kind of workers should Congress extend trade adjustment assistance?

Answer: Congress should extend TAA to service sector workers, who are losing their jobs due to international trade. Learn more here.

3. Where is the best place to learn about labor and the new energy economy?

Answer: Learn more about labor in the new energy economy at a first-of-it's-kind midwest regional conference in Cleveland on October 22nd and 23rd. Register here.